between Main Street and the train tracks. There's a large parking lot.

From Main Street South: Turn right onto 7th Avenue – then look for the Arts Council on your right, before the RR tracks.

As usual, we will have (a) Featured Leader-Performer(s). Ingrid Heldt and Isis Ra, the organizers, will also participate, and so can you: Similarly to the Circle of Song Stage at our NJ Friends of Clearwater Festivals, there will be opportunities for audience members to take a turn or two to play – or to sing along – please bring your instrument. But if you wish, just come and listen.

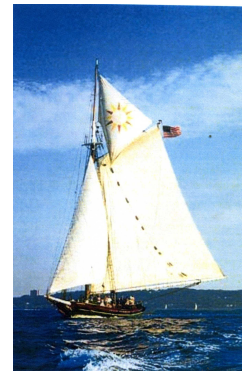

We encourage songs about the environment and sing-along songs, but you can do or request others.

The suggested donation of $7 is still split between NJ Friends of Clearwater's free Annual Festival (our 43rd, Sep. 8 and 9, 2018) and Pastor Sony's work on behalf of the homeless and the hungry in Asbury Park.

Our Leader-Performer for May 6 will be Joe Petraitis

Joe Petraitis is a singer-songwriter who has performed with Pete Seeger at his Festivals and on the television show "Cafe Improv." He teaches children how to write songs and has co-written songs with them. Joe is an active member in the Nashville Songwriters Association, the Folk Project and the Philadelphia Alliance of Songwriters Assoc. (PASA). He will definitely be doing a few songs with Ingrid Heldt. He wrote her favorite song, "Where is the Soul." He can be reached at misterp946@aol.com.

Our next Circle – on June 3, with Tommy and Abby Anton – will be back at the Eatontown Library. Please check www.ingridmusic.com under Circle of Song for any potential changes to planned events – or call 732-869-9276.
