Route 35 South: Follow the jughandle (on right) to take a left onto Broad Street – find Library. If you reach the entrance of Fort Monmouth (on Route 35), you've gone too far – make a U-Turn - then follow 35 North instructions.

Route 195 East: Turn right on Route 18 or continue to Route 35 North – follow those directions.

If you come from NYC: Ask the Academy Bus Driver to stop at the above address.

As usual, we will have a Featured Leader-Performer(s). Ingrid Heldt and Isis Ra, the organizers, will also participate, and so can you: Similarly to the Circle of Song Stage at our NJ Friends of Clearwater Festivals, there will be opportunities for audience members to take a turn or two to play – or to sing along – please bring your instrument. But if you wish, just come and listen.

We encourage songs about the environment and sing-along songs, but you can do or request others.

The suggested donation of $3-$7 is still split between NJ Friends of Clearwater's free Annual Festival (our 43rd in 2018) and Pastor Sony's work on behalf of the homeless and the hungry in Asbury Park.

Our Leader-Performer for December 2 will be Sharleen Leahey

Sharleen Leahey is a songwriter, singer and guitarist known for speaking truth to power. Her stirring, heartfelt lyrics reflect her early musical influences which include Buffy Sainte-Marie, Phil Ochs and Pete Seeger whose "Where Have All The Flowers Gone?" first inspired her to pick up a guitar. Sharleen's most recent collection of original songs, "Rumors of Peace," includes "What Would Woody Write?", her tribute song for Woody Guthrie and "New World", an anthem for activists everywhere. Sharleen brings audiences together "like a gathering storm", urging us to lift our voices with joyful passion for peace, justice and planetary healing. Among others, she will be doing some of the songs of her new CD, "For the 99." Contact: <http://www.rumorsofpeace.net> .

On January 6, we will welcome Sally Neal.
