First comes Harris, the dog.
He jumps out from the fog,
Takes his place on Pete's Banjo.
Those of us who came late
Are scrambling through the gate,
Ready to sail on Pete's Banjo.

Shannon was our captain
On that beautiful day
When we first sailed away on Pete's Banjo.
Shannon 's spirit lives with us, It didn't go away.
He sails with us still on Pete's Banjo.

Memories are sweet.
Kids ask, "Who is Pete?"
As we sail away on Pete's Banjo.
We recall a song,
We all sing along as we
Sail all day on Pete's Banjo.

Sail away – It's a beautiful day. Sail away – on Pete's Banjo.

We love our boat. We think it's pretty. . Garveys sailed from city to city.
Didn't smell or pollute the air . They cost little - they got us there.
