As usual, we will have a Featured Leader-Performer. Ingrid Heldt and Isis Ra, the organizers, will also participate, and so can you. More than during our NJ Friends of Clearwater Festival, there will be opportunities for audience members to take a turn or two or three to play – or to sing along – please bring your instrument. But if you wish, just come and listen.

We encourage songs about the environment and sing-along songs, but you can do or request others.

The suggested donation of $3-$7 is still split between NJ Friends of Clearwater and Pastor Sony's work on behalf of the homeless and the hungry in Asbury Park.

Our Featured Leader-Performer for June 2 will be James Durst

James Durst is a folk music legend who has been quietly traversing the planet as a touring artist since 1965, performing for rapt audiences of all ages in 50 states & DC and more than 200 cities in 45 countries throughout the Americas, Europe, Scandinavia, the Middle East, Southeast Asia, Russia, Azerbaijan, Japan, Korea and, most recently, India and Israel. He draws from a rich, ever-evolving repertoire of distinctive songs, both original and gathered, in some two dozen languages that reflect a global perspective and underscore the interconnectedness we share with all of life, bringing us closer to our world and to each other. He founded Work o' the Weavers (2003-present) and is a founding Lifetime member of Folk Alliance International. He has written some 250 songs, many of which have appeared on his many recordings, as well as an eco-peace world musical, Hue Manatee's Quest, and a three part epic work, A Whaling Trilogy, that has been orchestrated for symphony, chorus and soloists. More about James and his music can be found at www.JamesDurst.com & www.ReverbNation.com/JamesDurst.
